

Shadow Lake and Mount Ball, site of second night's camp on proposed Official Trail Ride, August 1929

Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies

BULLETIN No. 19

So many enquiries are coming in as to plans for next year's Trail Ride, that we are making this early announcement of what is contemplated, although this is always subject to change. Vice-President Jim Brewster and the Secretary-Treasurer made a preliminary canter on "Shank's mare" over most of the proposed route, and were so impressed by the magnificence of the scenery that they both decided this would be an ideal trail ride if certain gaps between existing trails could be cut. Mr. H. F. Mathews, Manager of Canadian Pacific Hotels, Western Lines, said he would do what he could, and most of the new trail has already been cut, leaving only a small section to be completed in June and July. The date of the Trail Ride is fixed to start on August 1st, lasting four days.

The plans are that the start should be from Banff and the ride continue up Healy Creek and Sunshine Valley to Simpson Pass, where the first camp would be pitched. The second camp would be on the shores of Shadow Lake under Mount Ball. This would allow of a side trip partly by pony and partly on foot to the marvellously beautiful Egypt Lakes, some photographs of which are reproduced in this Bulletin. Mr. A. O. Wheeler, veteran Alpinist, who has surveyed this territory, is of the opinion that it includes some of the most wonderful mountain scenery in the Canadian Rockies, but except for Alpine climbers and an occasional hunter this area is practically virgin territory. Mr. J. C. S. Bennett, official photographer for the Canadian Pacific Railway, who made a special trip last August to take the photographs here reproduced, had no difficulty in getting about and came back very enthusiastic. Shadow Lake has excellent camping ground, and the Canadian Pacific is building a rest house, as the proposed trail will undoubtedly attract many riders after the Trail Riders have gone over it. This district is full of game and Mr. Bennett got a snapshot of a moose in the lake which is reproduced in this Bulletin. The third day is an easy ride over a ridge to Twin Lakes, where the next camp will be pitched. These lakes are full of young trout, as they have recently been restocked. At present they are closed for fishing, but those who watch the surface can talk about all the fish they might have caught if only they had been allowed to throw a fly.

The last day's ride will be over another ridge, ending up at Castle Mountain Bungalow Camp on the Banff-Windermere Highway about noon. Here the Pow-Wow will be held. There is a miniature golf course at this Bungalow Camp, said to be the highest in the British Empire, and other forms of entertainment will no doubt be arranged for those who are not attending the executive meetings. The usual Pow-Wow and Sing-Song will be held before night falls, and there will be ample time for those who have not time to stay overnight to get away to Banff or Lake Louise.

The rates for the ride exclusive of motor car or motor bus charges from Castle Mountain Bungalow Camp to Banff or Lake Louise will be $50.00 per head.

This will cover supply of horses, guides, camp equipment and food. All riders must provide their own sleeping equipment, preferably sleeping bag and three warm blankets. Motor busses will be on hand to convey Trail Riders to Banff or Lake Louise after the Pow-Wow, while there are comfortable cabins at the Bungalow Camp for those who wish to stay overnight or longer.

A few days after this four-day ride, a more ambitious long distance ride to last about 17 days is being planned for the Columbia Icefields from Lake Louise. This will be limited to twenty riders exclusive of guides, and those who participate must hold at least the 100-mile (silver) button of the Order.

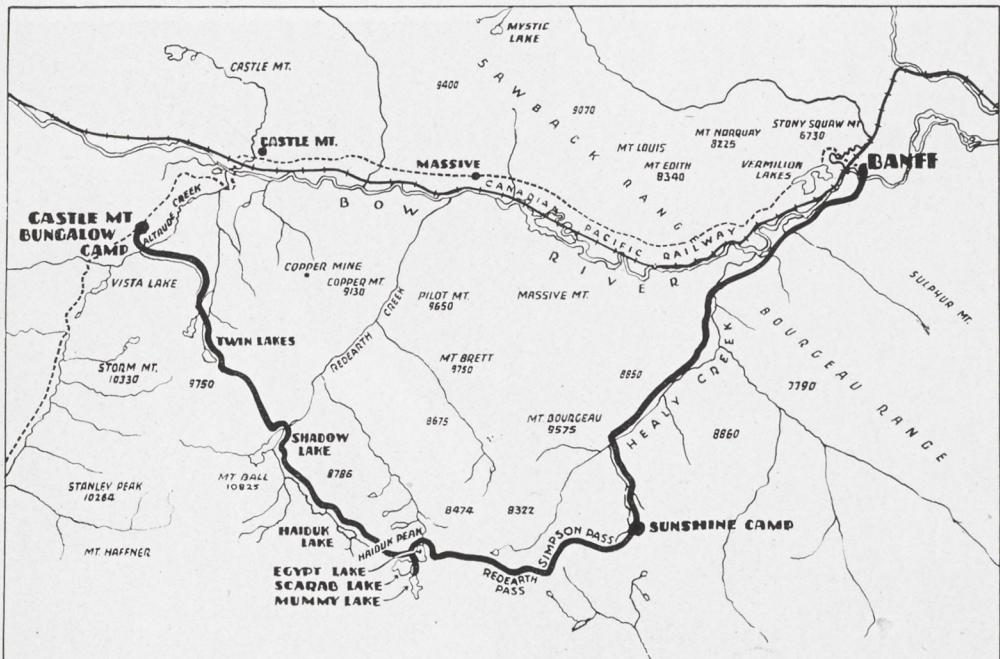

A Reminiscence of 1928.—At the Lake of the Hanging Glaciers

Particulars as to rates will be announced later, but these will be kept down to the lowest possible. The Official Trail Rides are not considered as revenue producing and have hitherto always been run at a loss, sometimes large and sometimes, fortunately, small.

"COUNTRY LIFE" CUP FOR AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS

Amateur photographers who participate in the Official Trail Rides next summer will have the incentive of competing for the very handsome engraved silver cup offered on behalf of "Country Life of America," the well-known illustrated magazine, by its Editor, Mr. Reginald Townsend, who is one of the original members of the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies, and was one of those responsible for its inception. This was in the summer of 1923, when Mr. Townsend was one of a party which camped on the Wolverine Pass and was held up for a day by inclement weather. During that enforced rest many discussions were held on the subject of trail riding, and eventually it was decided to organize an association provided the idea received sufficient encouragement. Mr. R. H. Palenske, artist, of Chicago, promised to design the badge and Mr. Townsend promised the publicity of his columns, a promise which he nobly fulfilled. Although unable personally to take part in any of the organized Trail Rides, owing to pressure of business, Mr. Townsend has always taken a keen interest in its progress, and this magnificent trophy is tangible evidence of that interest. He has, moreover, kindly consented to act as one of the judges of the photographs submitted, and it is his ardent wish some day to join one of our expeditions. Both the rides planned go through magnificent Alpine country, much of which has hitherto been known only to a few adventurous Alpine climbers, so the photographic territory is practically new. Rules for this competition will be announced probably in the next issue of the Bulletin. The cup will be held by the winner for one year and his or her name engraved on it.

Cup offered by "Country Life in America" for the best amateur photograph taken on the Official Trail Rides, 1929.
